New York, 30 April 2007

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that, in accordance with the procedure set out in the annex to Security Council resolution 1730 (2006), which stipulates that “[a] State can decide that, as a rule, its citizens or residents should address their de-listing requests directly to the focal point” and that “[t]he State will do so by a declaration addressed to the Chairman of the Committee that will be published on the Committee’s website”, citizens or residents of France who wish to submit a de-listing request to the Committee should do so through the focal point established pursuant to resolution 1730 (2006).

Citizens or residents of France who address their de-listing requests to the French authorities will be informed of that procedure and invited to submit their requests to the focal point.

I should be grateful if you would publish this declaration on the Committee’s website.

Accept, Sir, the assurances of my highest consideration.
