7. The situation in the Central African Republic

During the period under review, the Security Council held 20 meetings in connection with the situation in the Central African Republic, including one closed meeting with countries contributing troops and police to the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic, issued two presidential statements and adopted six resolutions under Chapter VII of the Charter. The Council, working with the African Union, the Economic Community of Central African States, the European Union and other regional and international partners gave sustained consideration to this item, focusing on constraining intercommunal confrontations between anti-balaka and former Séléka factions to advance the reconciliation process; promoting inclusive political dialogue and assisting with the constitutional referendum and the legislative and presidential elections to complete the transition and restore peace and security; facilitating the delivery of and strengthening international action on humanitarian assistance to civilians affected by armed conflict, the displaced and refugees; and proceeding to disarmament, demobilization, reintegration and repatriation and preparing for security sector reform.

By resolution 2149 \(2014\), the Council established the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic (MINUSCA)<sup>22</sup> and requested the Secretary-General to subsume the presence of the United Nations Integrated Peacebuilding Office in the Central African Republic (BINUCA)<sup>23</sup> into MINUSCA, ensuring a seamless transition. The Council further decided that authority would be transferred on 15 September 2014 to MINUSCA from the African-led International Support Mission in the Central African Republic. By resolution 2217 \(2015\), the Council extended the mandate of MINUSCA for a period of one year, until 30 April 2016.

<sup>23</sup> For more information on the mandate of BINUCA, see part X, sect. II, “Political and peacebuilding missions”.

By resolution 2134 \(2014\), the Council strengthened the sanctions measures by applying a travel ban and asset freeze against individuals and entities designated by the Committee established pursuant to resolution 2127 \(2013\).<sup>24</sup> By resolution 2196 \(2015\), the Council decided to extend the sanctions measures until 29 January 2016. The mandate of the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2127 \(2013\) was twice extended twice for one year, in resolutions 2134 \(2014\) and 2196 \(2015\), respectively.<sup>25</sup>

<sup>24</sup> For more information on the sanctions measures concerning the Central African Republic, see part VII, sect. III, “Measures not involving the use of armed force in accordance with Article 41 of the Charter”.

<sup>25</sup> For more information on the Committee established pursuant to resolution 2127 \(2013\) concerning the Central African Republic and the mandate of the Panel of Experts established pursuant to that resolution, see part IX, sect. I.B.

8. The situation in Guinea-Bissau

During the period under review, the Security Council held eight meetings relating to the situation in Guinea-Bissau and adopted three resolutions. By resolutions 2157 \(2014\), 2186 \(2014\) and 2203 \(2015\), the Council thrice renewed the mandate of the United Nations Integrated Peacebuilding Office in Guinea-Bissau (UNIOGBIS)<sup>26</sup> for periods of three months, six months and one year, respectively. The last extension was from 1 March 2015 until 29 February 2016.<sup>27</sup>

During 2014 and 2015, the Council was briefed by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Guinea-Bissau and the Chair of the Guinea-Bissau configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission, regarding the presidential and legislative elections in 2014, the institutional and socio-economic challenges that the country faced while emerging from conflict, and the need for the continuous engagement of the international community, in particular the donors. All substantive Council discussion on the situation in Guinea-Bissau took place in consultations, the main focus being on the restoration of constitutional order in the country, underpinned, in particular, by the holding of successful elections. Other important issues discussed included the reform and strengthening of State institutions, the need for inclusive political
